15 A Proclamation

By the Governor of the State of Missouri.

Whereas, by a common understanding between the Governors of the various States of the Union, in order to produce uniformity, the last Thursday, (26th) in November next, has been proposed to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, by the people of the respective States, when the entire nation, under the care of their respective Executive authorities, may assemble in their several places of worship, and with united hearts and voices, give thanks to Almighty God, for the many blessings, he has conferred upon us, as a nation and people, and that with humble and contrite spirits, acknowledging our faults, we may invoke Him for a continuance of that heavenly influence in our behalf, without which, our Independence would not have been achieved — the Union of these States preserved, nor the blessings arising from religious toleration enjoyed throughout the vast expanse of this mighty nation.

Now Therefore, I, Austin A King, Governor of the State of Missouri, do, by this my proclamation recommend to the good people of this State, that they do join and co-operate with the good people of all the other States of this Union, and without any distinction of denomination or creed, observe Thursday the 26th day of November next, as a day of Prayer and Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for the favors he has conferred upon us, and for a continuance of those happy influences which have brought around us all the blessings we enjoy.
